PalmSource™ 99

International Marketing and Distribution

Claudia Romanini
Director, International Product Group
Palm Computing

3Com
More connected.

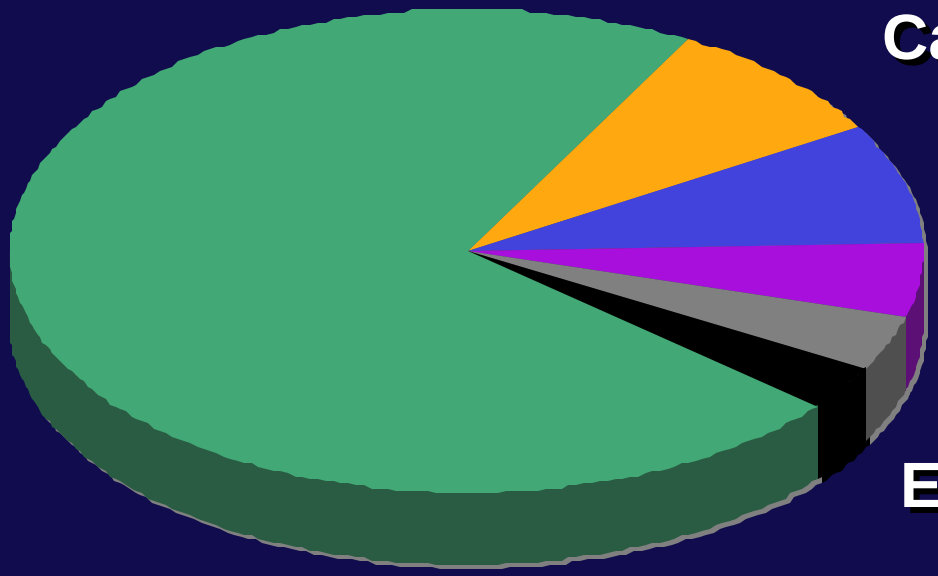

Agenda

PalmSource 99

- The global opportunity
- Regional market overview
- Panel introductions
- Q&A

European Market Share

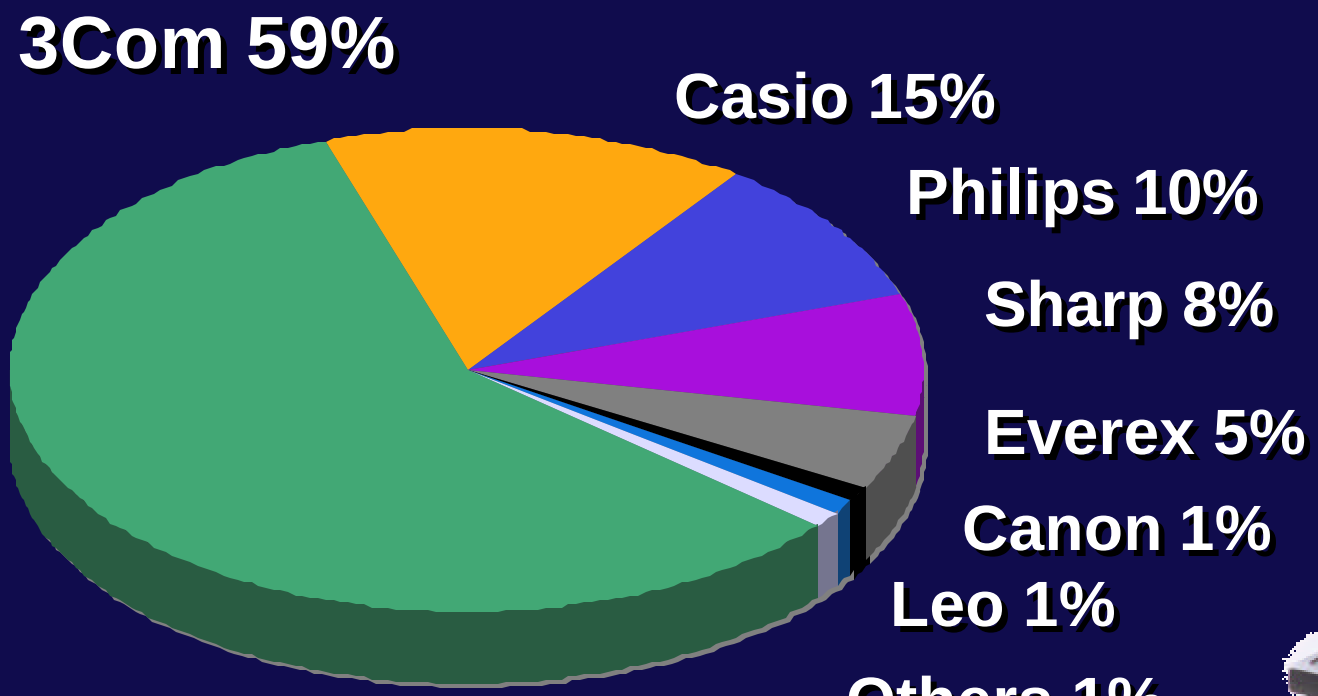

Source: IDC, Total 1998 Personal Companion Unit Shipments, May 1999

Asia/Pacific Market Share

Source: IDC, Total 1998 Personal Companion Unit Shipments, May 1999

International Strategy

PalmSource 99

- Focus on international product and market requirements
- Investment in dedicated field sales and marketing teams
- Channel focus and development
- Regional support infrastructures
- Developer community

Regional Overview: Europe

PalmSource 99

- Products
  - Initial shipments into Europe - September 1996
- Localization
  - Int'l English, German, French, Spanish and Italian
- Channel
  - Pan-European, including Middle East and S. Africa
- Infrastructure
  - Dedicated field employees
- Service and Support
  - European Technical Support and Customer Service

Regional Overview: Asia/Pacific

PalmSource 99

- Products
  - Initial shipments to Australia and Hong Kong in 11/96
- Localization
  - International English
- Channel
  - Distributed in Singapore, Hong Kong, Australia/New Zealand, Malaysia, Philippines and Thailand
- Infrastructure
  - Dedicated field employees
- Service and Support
  - Regional Technical Support and Customer Service Centers

Japan

PalmSource 99

- Japanese version of Palm OS®
  - Launched in February ’99
- Established developer community
- Channel
  - Partnership with IBM Japan
- Infrastructure
  - Dedicated field employees

Regional Overview: Latin America

PalmSource 99

- Products
  - Initial shipments to Brazil and Mexico in June 1997
- Localization
  - Spanish and Int'l English w/ Brazilian Portuguese documentation
- Infrastructure
  - Dedicated field employees
- Channel
  - Distributed throughout Latin America and also serviced through Miami

Market Success Factors

PalmSource 99

- Product localization
- Regional market strategy
- Channel strategy
- Support infrastructure

Panel Introductions

PalmSource 99

- Anne-Marie Bourcier
  - Director of International Marketing, Palm Computing
- Craig Will
  - Director of Asia/Pacific and Japan, Palm Computing
- Henry Dos Santos
  - Director of Distribution Sales for the Americas, Palm Computing

PalmSource™ 99
3Com
More connected.