
accelerate collaborate
innovate
communicate
palm PalmSource
Conference 2000

806: Entertainment for Palm Powered™ Handhelds

Michael C. Bergen
Market Development Manager

PalmSource
Conference 2000

Agenda

- What is entertainment software
- Why you should be creating entertainment software
- How do people use handhelds for fun
- What kinds of entertainment apps work best
- Where you should be working towards

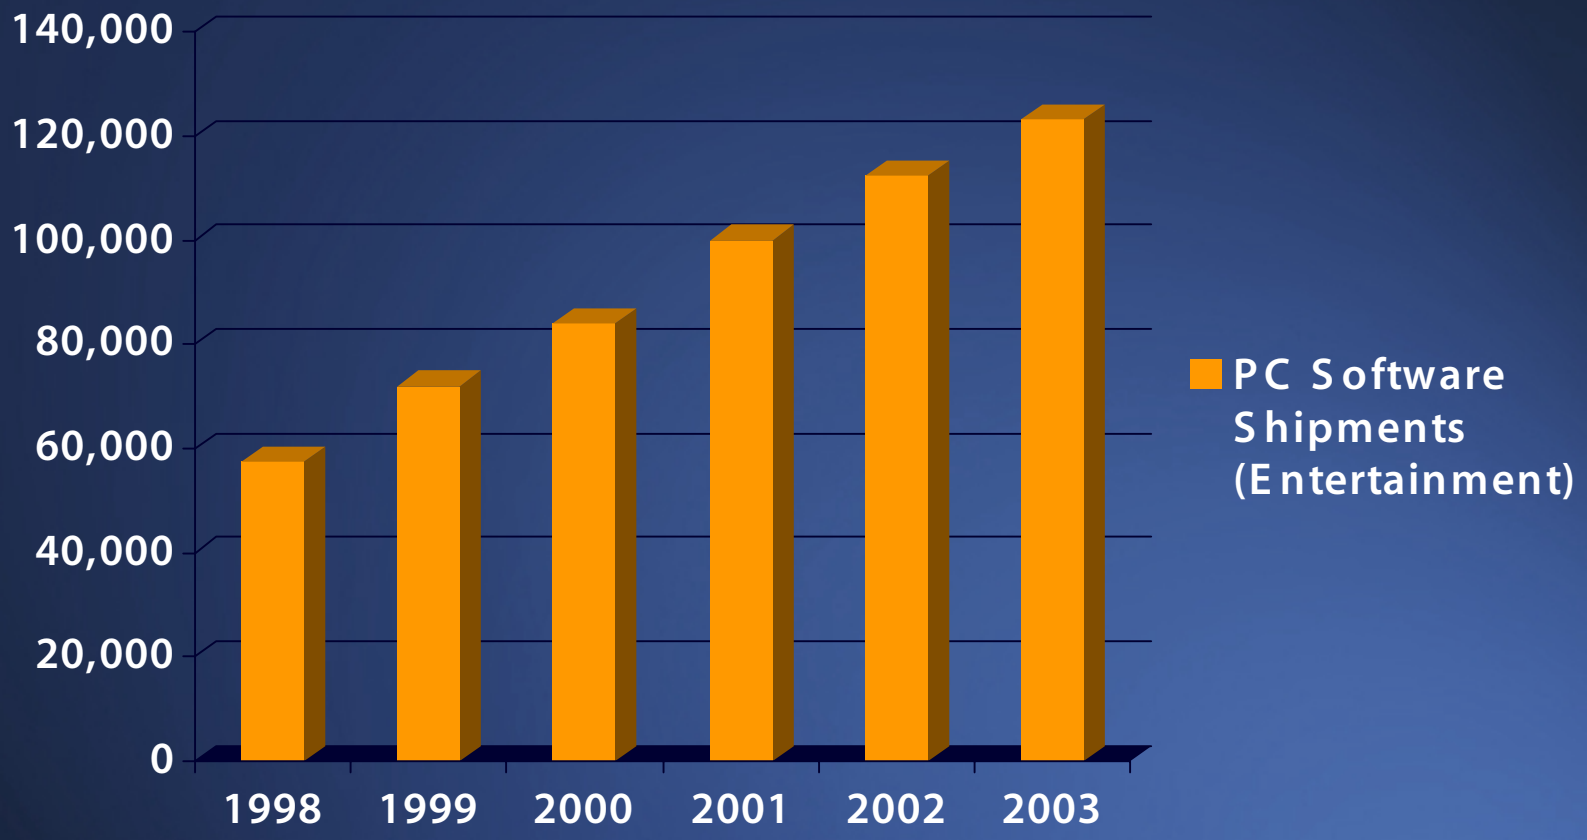

“That’s Entertainment”

- Games
- Toys
- Time Killers
- Media—Pictures, Movies, etc.
- eBooks
- Other Fun Stuff—This is a great opportunity to Innovate!

Entertainment Titles Are Among the Most Downloaded Applications

- “What’s on Your Palm handheld”
- Over 2500 on PalmGear
- Over 600 on ZDNet
- Well over 4000 eBooks

The Game Market Is Growing

PC Videogame Software Shipments, 1998–2003 (000)

Source: IDC What to Play Next: Gaming Forecast, 1999-2003

How Do People Use Handhelds for Entertainment?

- Opportunity gaming
- Traveling
- Interactive gaming
- Reading Novels
- Showing their Palm™ handhelds to friends
- As a compliment to physical activities
- Edutainment

What Kind of Entertainment Apps Work Best?

- Games
  - Arcade
  - Puzzle
  - Card/casino
  - Text
- Pure Fun
  - Digital Pets, Tricorder, etc.
- Sound and Music (Sessions 812 earlier today, 819 Round Table, 3pm)

The Future: Where to Work Towards

- Wireless, wireless, wireless
- Services
- Licensing
- Secure Digital
- 16-Bit Color
- Hardware

- Innovation!

PalmSource Conference 2000

Discussion

PalmSource

Conference 2000

Other Pertinent Sessions

- Today, 3pm–4pm, Café Collaborate 819RT—Round Table: Adding MIDI and mp3 Sound to Palm OS® Solutions
- Today, 4:15pm–5:15pm, Great America J 807—Media on Palm Powered™ Devices
- Today, 5:30pm–6:30pm, Café Collaborate 817RT—Round Table: Games and Entertainment
- Tomorrow, 11:15am–12:15pm, Theater 107—Developing Full-Motion Animation

accelerate
collaborate
innovate
communicate
palm PalmSource
Conference 2000