
accelerate collaborate
innovate communicate palm
PalmSource
Conference 2000

A World of Opportunities

- Host:
  - Jamie Pyper, European Alliance Manager
- Europe
  - Suzanne Strauss
- Asia and Pacific Rim
  - David Ushijima
- Latin America and Canada
  - Henry Dos Santos

The European Market Opportunity

Suzanne Strauss
Market Development Mgr.
SI and Enterprise ISV, Europe

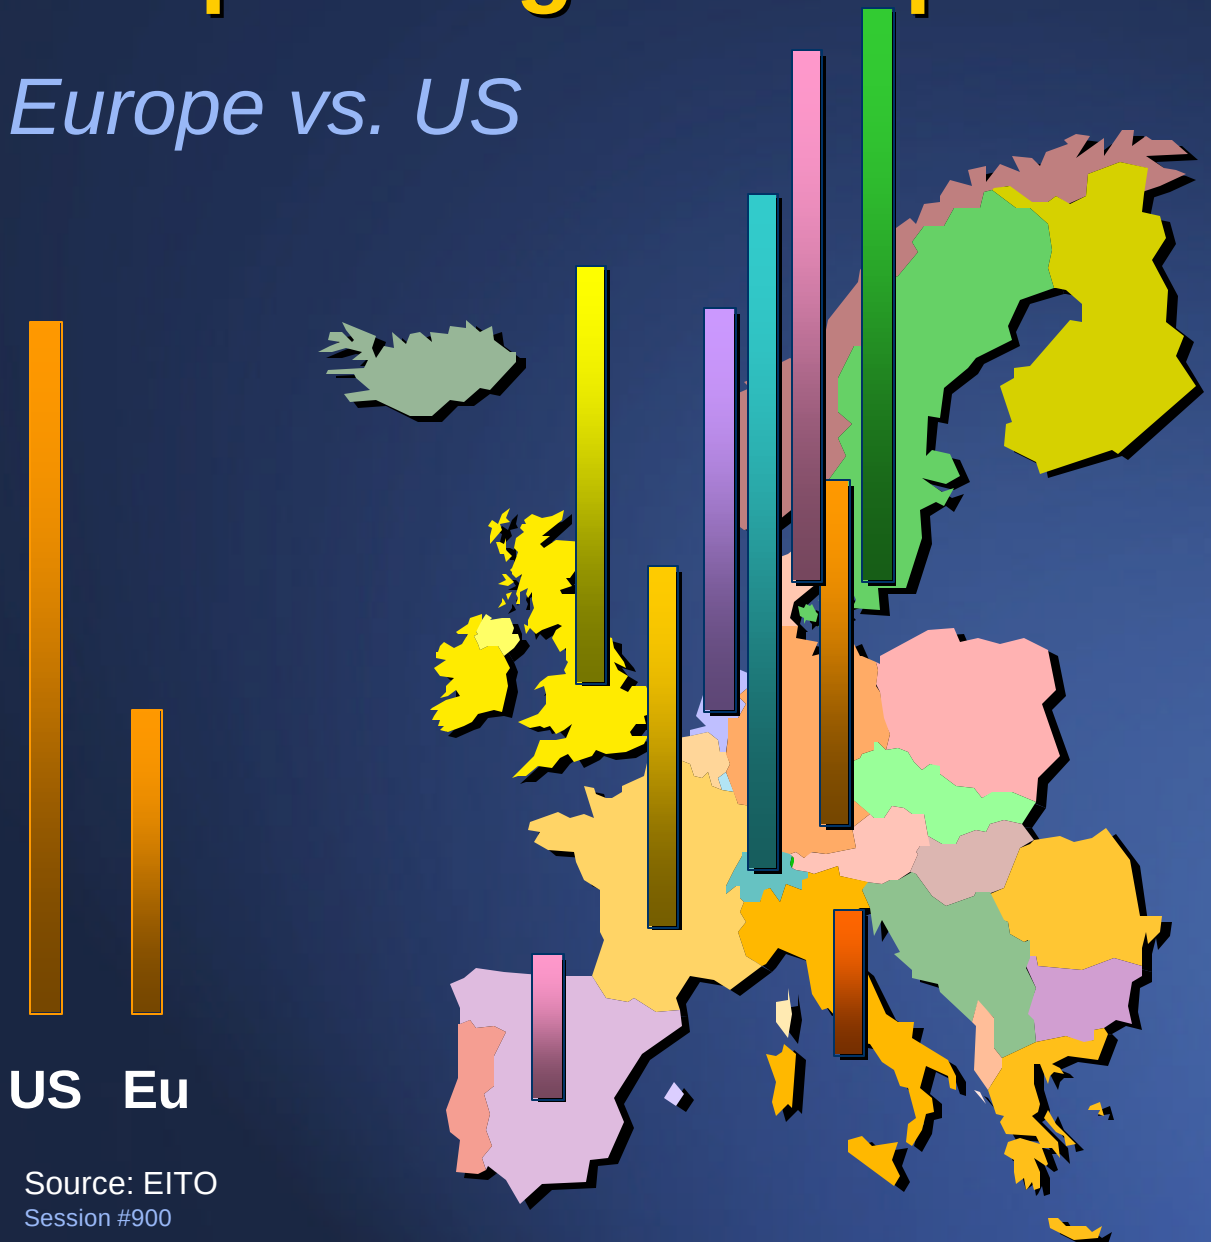

PalmSource
Conference 2000

Europe Is Different

- Various countries with cultural and language variety
- Huge differences between Northern and Southern Europe—as well as “the West” and “the East”
- Different prices—different currencies—different laws
- High penetration of mobile phones through homogenous mobile phone network (GSM)

IT Spending Per Capita 1999

Europe vs. US

Source: EITO

Technology Adoption in Europe

The regional difference

Source: EITO

Technology Adoption in Europe

Internet subscribers 1996–2003

Source: EITO

PalmSource
Conference 2000

Towards the Internet Economy

E-business segments Western Europe

Source: IDC

Europe Is “Palm-Land”

“Personal Companions” (IDC) penetration per country

PalmSource Conference 2000

IDC 1H 2000 Market Shares Europe

Source: IDC 11/2000

PalmSource Conference 2000

Palm, Inc. Is European Market Leader

Palm Marketshare in selected countries

Source: GfK 9/2000

The European Opportunity

- High technology adoption esp. in Northern Europe—other countries are ramping up quickly!
- Fast implementation of eBusiness application expected
- High penetration of handhelds in Northern Europe, UK and Switzerland—huge potential in Spain and Italy
- Palm is handheld market leader in Europe!

Japan and Asia Pacific Markets

David Ushijima
Director, Asia Pacific Platform Development

PalmSource
Conference 2000

A Region of Diversity, Growth and Innovation

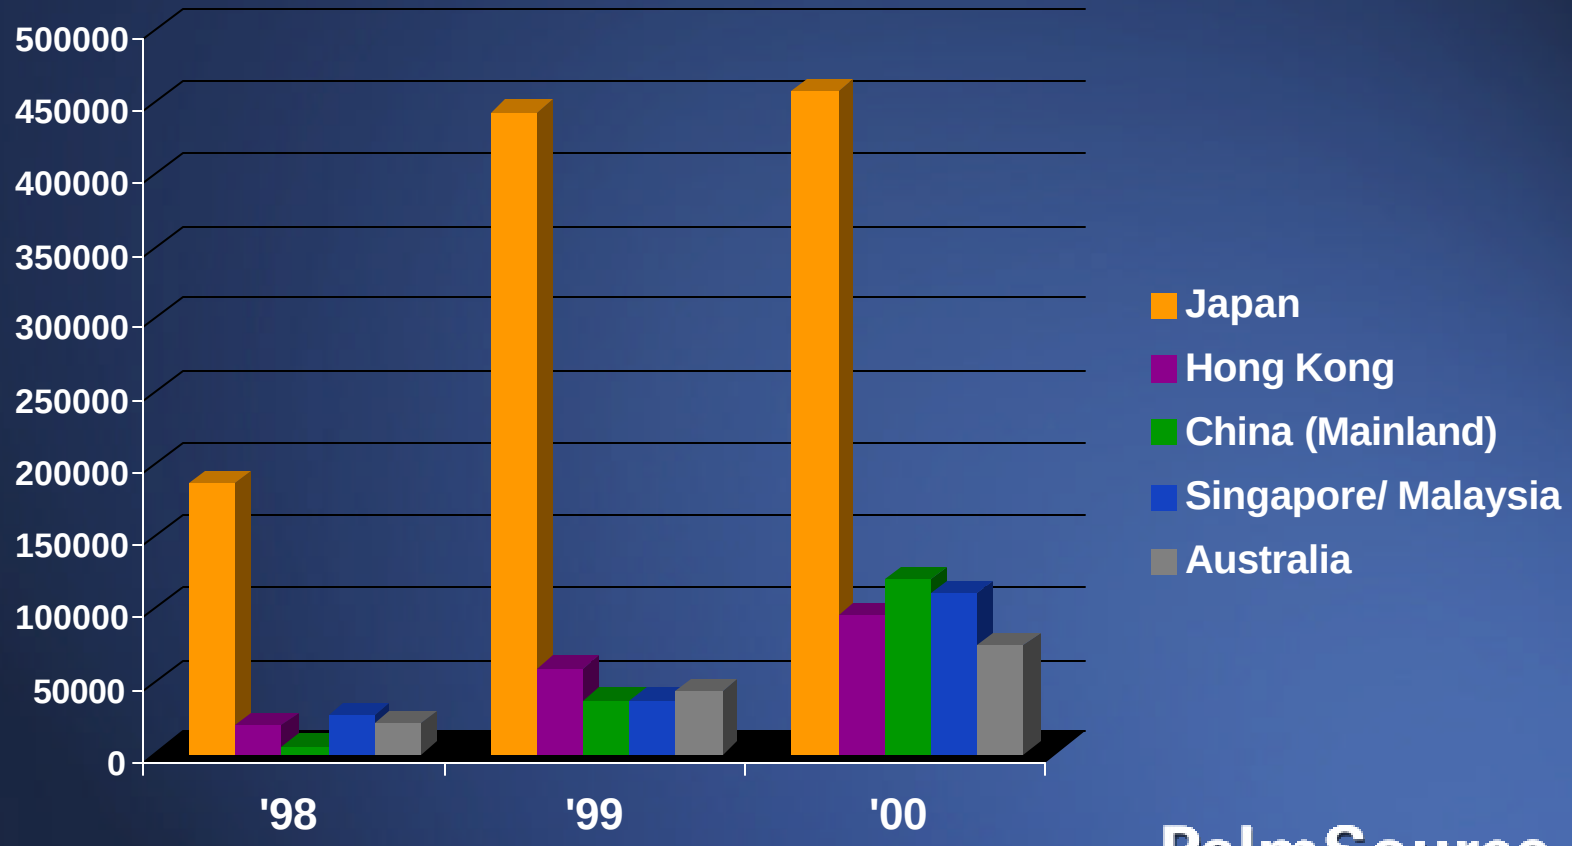

- Challenge: Understanding and Dealing with Diversity in language, culture, size
- Opportunity:
  - Fastest Growth Region for Palm Worldwide
  - Experiencing Leading-edge trends in the mobile marketplace

Asia Pacific Region at a Glance

High Growth Markets in APR

Personal Companion Market (IDC) by region (units shipped)

Source: IDC Smart Handheld, 1H'00

PalmSource Conference 2000

Palm OS® Marketshare: Japan and APR

Palm OS Marketshare/Personal Companion (units)

Source: IDC APR/Japan Smart Handheld 1H'00

PalmSource Conference 2000

A Region of Innovation

Internet and Wireless Deployment—% of Population

Source: Yankee Group. Boston Consulting, IDC

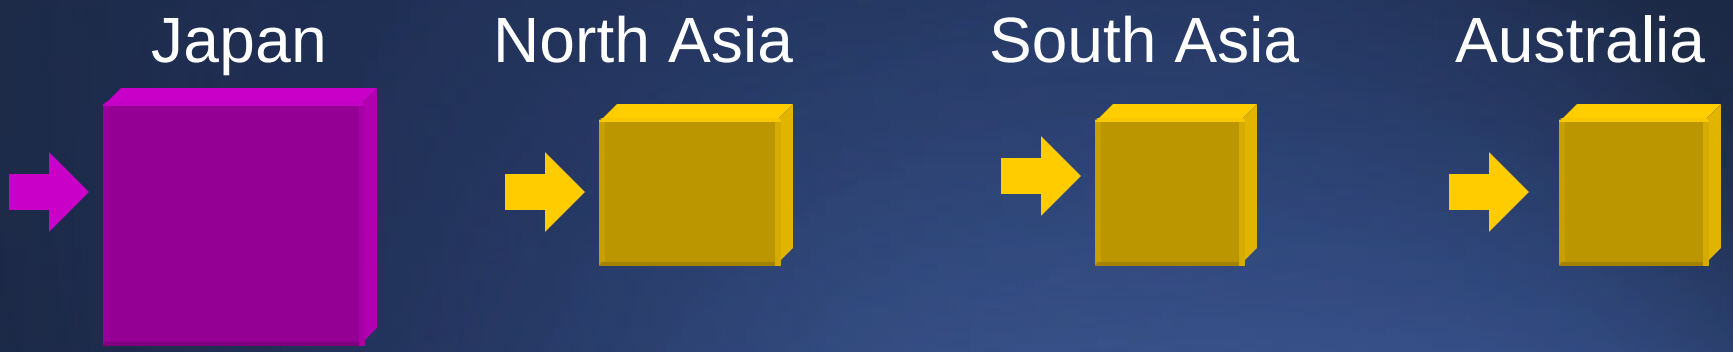

PalmSource Conference 2000

40% of WW Palm OS Developers Are Located Outside of North America

Total: 130,760 as of 12/04/2000

APR Markets With Language Overlays

- Japanese
- International English
- 3rd party overlays

Hong Kong

Taiwan

Mainland China

Korea

Singapore

Malaysia

Thailand

Philippines

Indonesia

India

New Zealand

Market Trends and Opportunities: Japan

- Mobile Lifestyle
  - I-Mode phenomena (over 14M and growing)
  - 2nd or 3rd generation of handheld devices
  - Trend from Sharp Zaurus to Palm OS®
- Palm OS Growth in Market Share
- Wireless and Enterprise opportunities abound
- 3G Wireless coming—May ’01

LinkEvolution IRGear

Market Trends and Opportunities: North Asia

- Wireless and Enterprise Opportunities in Established Markets
  - Launch of MIK in region: Nov. ’00
- Hong Kong
  - Strong developed consumer moving to mass market
- Taiwan
  - Fast growth after Summer ’00 launch
- New and Emerging:
  - Mainland China
    - 3rd party Simplified Chinese overlay available
  - Korea
    - Beginning distribution
    - 3rd party Korean overlay available

Market Trends and Opportunities: South Asia/Anza

- Enterprise and Wireless opportunities
- Singapore
  - Very high mobile phone penetration
  - Launch of MIK and high interest in mobile and PDA
- Australia
  - Mature retail market
  - Wireless and enterprise opportunities
- New and Emerging Markets
  - Indonesia—Jan. ’00 Launch
  - India—March ’00 Launch

Where to Go From Here

- For more detail: Attend the Session Succeeding in the Japan and APR Markets Session
- To talk with representatives from the region attend the APR Roundtable
- PalmSource Forum Japan
  - Feb. 14–15, ANA Hotel, Tokyo

Americas International (AMI) Market Opportunity

Henry Dos Santos
Sales Director
AMI

PalmSource
Conference 2000

AMI: The Last Frontier

- AMI = Canada and all countries in LAT
- Canada is often overlooked as a region for expansion
- LAT consists of 22 countries
- Palm, Inc. products
  - Canada = English / French
  - Brazil = English
  - Spanish to all other LAT countries
- Palm OS® has strong market share
- High penetration on both PCs and cell phones

Palm AMI: The Team

- Michael Moskowitz: Canada Country Manager
- Carlos De Vries: LAT Region Manager
- Ricardo Shahin: Mexico Country Manager
- Gianfranco Coppola: Brazil Territory Manager
- Maximiliano Casero: Argentina Territory Manager

Palm, Inc., Canada

- Based in Toronto
- Offices in Vancouver and Montreal
- Focusing on Enterprise and Retail

The Canadian Market

- 52% have computer at home
- 54% have Internet access
- 83% look for Canadian sites when shopping
- 42% live in Ontario
- 18% are in Toronto
- 32% have HHI of $75K+

Canadian Handheld Forecast (Units)

Source: Evans Research Corporation
PC Market in Canada, March 2000

PalmSource Conference 2000

Canadian Handheld Market Share
Palm OS® Holds 86%

Source: Evans Research Corporation
PC Market in Canada, Segment Update Program
Q3/2000

Palm, Inc., Latin America

- Regional Headquarters in Miami
- Mexico
- Argentina
- Brazil

Palm Latin America

- Palm OS has largest installed base
- Shipments growing—3x YOY
- Regional and local distribution network
  - Miami
  - Argentina
  - Mexico
  - Brazil
  - Venezuela
  - Chile
  - Colombia

Addressing the Consumer Market

- Strong retail presence
- Mexico: Office Depot, Office Max, Sanborns, Sears, Sams Club, Costco, Telmex, etc.
- Argentina: Musimundo, Compumundo, Garbarino, Fravega, Telefonica,
- Brazil: Punto Frio, PlugnUse, Office Max,
- Hundreds of locally developed apps

Web Presence

- Palm, Inc. websites for Mexico, Argentina and Brazil
- Strong interaction with major e-tailers and Internet players
- Great way to obtain in-country presence
- Must be localized

Palm LAT: Strong Local Developers

- More than 4400 local developers
- Applications range from maps to secure banking and ERP applications
- Eager to partner and develop region-wide project deployments

Enterprise in Latin America

- A booming opportunity
- Replacing laptops in many circumstances
- Several key reference implementations (SFA, ERP, CRM, etc)—Quilmes, Sul America, Clorox, SAE, Banco do Brasil, etc.
- Providing major competitive advantages to corporations and their customers

Wireless

- Brazil—TDMA, CDMA, Mobitex in the near future
- Mexico—CDPD and TDMA
- Argentina—CDMA and TDMA
- Colombia, Venezuela and Peru—CDPD

In Closing…

- Canada is natural area for expansion
- LAT is red hot, major area of growth for Palm
- Think global, act local
- Focus on certain regions
- Work with my team

How to Find Out More About the Booming International Market:

- PalmSource Sessions and Roundtables:
  - European Market:
    - Succeeding in the European Market
      Friday, 11:15–12:15, Room 203/204
    - ROUND TABLE: Succeeding in the European Market
      Friday, 2:15–3:15, Café Collaborate, Room 209/210
  - Japan/Asia Pacific Market
    - Winning in the Japan and Asia Pacific Rim Markets
      Thursday, 1:45–2:45, Great America J
    - ROUND TABLE: Succeeding in the Japan/Asia Pacific Rim Market
      Thursday, 4:15–5:15, Café Collaborate, Room 209/210
  - Developing for the International Market:
    - Designing and Coding Your Application for Global Use
      Thursday, 3–4, Great America J
    - ROUND TABLE: Designing and Coding Your Application for Global Use
      Friday, 1–2, Café Collaborate, Room 209/210

And Coming Soon…

PalmSource Forum Europe

Jan. 31–Feb. 2, 2001
Amsterdam, The Netherlands
Register online at:
www.palm.com/europe/palmsource

PalmSource Forum Japan

Feb. 14–16, 2001
Tokyo, Japan
Further information:
www.palmsource.com

accelerate
collaborate
innovate
communicate
palm
PalmSource
Conference 2000